Dear Mr. Chairman:

I was very pleased with our first breakfast meeting with Members of the Senate Select Committee on Intelligence on 29 April, and intend to make them a monthly event if you find them as useful as I do. Such sessions provide an excellent forum for informal discussions of intelligence issues of mutual interest, and they also give me an opportunity to keep you abreast of current developments abroad.

I would like to hold our second session here at CIA Headquarters at 0800 hours on 9 June. I sincerely hope you can join me then.

Your response to would be appreciated.

I look forward to seeing you on 9 June.

Sincerely,

William J. Casey
